

MRS. WILL C. RAYMOND.

Wife of Grinnell Printer Passes Away
After Week's Illness of Flu.

Hallie Denlow was born Aug. 10, 1883, at Lancaster, Mo. Her father was a cousin of Governor Odell of New York and the little daughter early gave evidence of unusual ability and continued through life a strong and cultured woman. Her early life was passed at North Petersboro, N. Y. She returned to the town of her birth about 1897, and here June 17, 1900, she was united in marriage to Will C. Raymond at Lancaster.

Since her marriage she has lived successively at Mystic, Centerville, Newton and Grinnell, in all of which places Mr. Raymond has pursued the occupation of a printer. They came to Grinnell about a year ago, since which time Mr. Raymond has been employed at the Herald.

Five children have been born to this union, William, Martha, Maxine, Jack and Mignon. The oldest has just recovered from an attack of flu and Mignon is at the hospital down with the same disease.

Mrs. Raymond had been in rather poor health for several months, but was not attacked by flu and pneumonia until about a week before her death which came Monday at ten minutes after four o'clock in the afternoon.

The body was buried in Hazelwood Wednesday at two o'clock—the funeral service being held only at the grave on account of the character of the disease.

The service was conducted by Rev. E. M. Vittum.

Parties from away to attend the funeral were Mr. Raymond's mother, Mrs. S. F. Raymond, of Memphis, Mo.; Jack Towne, brother of the deceased woman, of Mexico, Mo.; Mrs. Hugh Leach, and brother, Ernest Corporan, friends from Centerville, and Fred Raymond and wife, of Blakesburg, brother of W. C. Raymond.
