ments.

Paul Glen Septer, 89, of Montezuma, Iowa was born on November 19, 1927 at Tina, Missouri to John and Mary Murphy Septer. He was the youngest of 11 children. He began school at Tina and then the family moved to Salem, Iowa. In 1946, Paul enlisted in the U.S. Army stationed in Newfoundland where he met his future bride. He was discharged in 1950 and returned to Iowa where he worked to earn enough money to purchase a Visa for his wife. Paul and Norma Jean Tuck were married on September 11, 1950 and made their home in Montezuma. They became parents of five children. He worked as a mechanic and later began his preaching career. He was pastor of the First Christian Church and later founded the nondenominational Faith Christian Center. Norma Jean passed away in 1988 and Paul and Opal Montgomery were married on May 4, 1989 blending their family into one loving happy family.

Paul loved music, the word of God, old westerns, horses, rebuilding and playing guitars, and most of all his family. He was a mentor to several pastors and served as V.P. of APEPT.

Paul is preceded in death by his parents, his first wife Norma Jean, his daughter Kathy in childhood; his brothers, Arthur, Pearl, Wayne, Harold, Roy, Orville, and Lloyd; his sisters, Viola Cook, Elizabeth Watson and Elsie Elliott.

Paul is survived by his wife Opal, his children Pam (Denny) Broadston of Montezuma, Trena (Kelly) Septer of Oskaloosa, Faith Fisher of Oskaloosa, Judy (Ron) Sullivan of Oklahoma City, Joan (Boyd) Bonnett of Brooklyn, Glen Septer of Montezuma and Jerry (Donna) Montgomery of Altoona; 16 grandchildren and 23 great grandchildren; as well as many other relatives and friends.
