

Marjorie Rhinehart, 86

Marjorie Rhinehart, age 86, of Victor and formerly of Hartwick, died Monday, March 6 at her home.

A funeral service was held at 10 a.m. on Saturday, March 11, at the Smith Funeral Home in Victor with Rev. Stephen J. Bibb officiating. Interment was at Brooklyn Cemetery in Brooklyn.

Memorial contributions may be directed to HLV Dollars for Scholars and the Victor Public Library. Online condolences may be submitted to the family on the Smith Funeral Home website at www.smithfh.com.

Marjorie was born the daughter of Walter and Alta Slosser Gant on Feb. 10, 1920, south of Ladora. She was raised in the Brooklyn and Victor area and graduated from Brooklyn High School in 1938.

She was united in marriage to Kenneth Rhinehart on April 2, 1939, at the Church of the Brethren in Brooklyn. To this union was born their two sons, Ron and Tom. The couple farmed in the Brooklyn and Hartwick area until 1956, when they moved to Hartwick. Following the death of her husband on March 18, 1988, Marjorie moved to Victor to be closer to her family.

Marjorie was employed at the Hartwick Post Office for seventeen years and was the Post Master there for thirteen years. She was a member of the Hartwick Firewomen's group. Her family described her as a simple person who enjoyed playing cards with her friends.

Marjorie is survived by her sons, Ron (Barb) Rhinehart of Victor, and Tom (Pat) Rhinehart of Victor; her grandchildren, Wendy (Greg) Schafbuch of Victor, Jeffrey (Lisa) Rhinehart of Victor, Jennifer (John) Vogelaar of Windsor Heights, and Chad Rhinehart of Brooklyn and his fiancé Amber; three great-grandchildren, Shelby Rhinehart, Morgan Rhinehart and Kendra Schafbuch; and her sister, Ila Shultz of Williamsburg.

Marjorie was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; and her sisters, Wilma See and Verla LaKose.
