Judith Lee Davis-Baker 2-15-2018

Judith Lee Davis-Baker, 75, of Minburn, Iowa, and formerly of Malcom, died February 10, 2018, at Perry Lutheran Home in Perry.

Graveside services and burial are scheduled for 11:00 a.m. Saturday, April 28th, at Ivy Hill Cemetery in Malcom. A Celebration of Life gathering will follow at the Malcom Auditorium.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be directed to the Judy Davis-Baker Memorial Fund.

Judy was born on May 1, 1942, in Grinnell, the daughter of Charlie Lloyd and Doris Louise Wolfe Davis, Sr. She was raised in Malcom and was a 1960 graduate of Malcom High School. She later attended Kirkwood Community College in Cedar Rapids and received a degree in Computer Sciences.

For most of her life, Judy lived in Minneapolis and Des Moines while working as a bank administrator for Wells Fargo in their mortgage department.

Judy was an avid reader. She loved her cats and flowers, especially roses; NASCAR and Jeff Gordon; and watching ice skating. She enjoyed cooking and baking, and while in high school she was very proud to have won a Betty Crocker award.

She is survived by her two sons, Jeff Baker of Minburn and James (Jodi) Baker of Yates City, Illinois; two grandchildren, Laura Ann Baker and Arick Bybee; six brothers, Dennis (Cindy) Davis of Malcom, Dale Davis of Marshalltown, Eric Davis of Minburn, Kevin (Rochelle) Davis of Des Moines and Anthony (Kristi) Davis of New Sharon; two sisters, Peggy (Harold) Kent of Brooklyn and Kim Davis of Des Moines; and many other family members. She was preceded in death by her parents and two brothers, Charlie Davis, Jr. and Brad Davis.
