Charlotte Joan Kitzman

Sept. 12, 1951 - Feb. 2, 2018

Charlotte Kitzman, 66, of What Cheer died Feb. 2, at Crystal Heights Care Center in Oskaloosa. A private funeral was held. Interment was in Barnes City Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to the family.

Charlotte Joan Kitzman was born Sept. 12, 1951 in Oskaloosa, the daughter of Raymond James Newcomb and Ramona Irene Vermillion. She was graduated from Tri-County High School in 1969.

In 1970 she married Sid Kitzman. Born to this union was a daughter Shelley. In 1986 she united in marriage to John Null on New Year's Eve.

Charlotte worked at John Deere in Ottumwa for several years before taking a position with her father at the Patriot Chronical Newspaper. After the family sold the Newspaper business Charlotte worked at Victor Plastics for fifteen years. As her father grew in age she graciously assumed caring for him fulltime until his passing in 2011.

Charlotte enjoyed fishing, but only if they were biting, watching the food channel and doing anything that involved her grandchildren. Charlotte will be remembered as a friendly, fun loving, kind and hard-working woman who loved her family unconditionally.

She was preceded in death by her parents; an infant son, Jeffery Alan Kitzman; an infant daughter, Alisha Marie Null; and a nephew, Shannon Newcomb.

Charlotte is survived by her husband, John Null of Oskaloosa; a daughter, Shelley Kitzman of What Cheer; a brother, John (Melody) Newcomb of Florida; three granddaughters, Haley Kitzman of Ottumwa, Sydney Schultz of South English, and Ava Schultz of What Cheer; two great grandchildren, Addyson Anderson and Greyson Schultz. She also leaves behind her aunt, Delores Newcomb of What Cheer; a sister-in-law, Debbie (John) Morten of Wichita, KS, a close cousin, Cindy Bartlow of Rose Hill and many nieces and nephews.
