

Hannah Craver, d. 14 Sep 1871 (b. 1812?), Grin Herald 20 Sep 1871

14. ~~DEATH OF A BROTHER.~~
15. DIED.
16. In this city on the 14th inst., after a short
17. illness, Mrs. HANNAH CRAVER, in the 59th
18. year of her age.
19. Also, on the 18th inst., the husband,
20. JAMES A. CRAVER, after a brief illness, in
21. his 54th year.
22. A discourse was preached in the M. E.
23. Church on the 19th inst., in view of the
24. death of both of these much loved christians.
25. The house was filled with people, and per-
26. haps nearly as many persons went away
27. from the church, not able to secure seats,
28. as were inside. Some seventy-five Masons
29. were present in appropriate regalia, ex-
30. pressive of their grief because of the de-
31. cease of a Brother.
32. In the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Craver,
33. not only the family is sorely bereaved, and
34. the church of which they were eminently
35. useful members, but the community has
36. sustained an incalculable loss. Every one
37. seems to feel it, and to sympathize most
38. deeply with the grief-stricken family and
39. relatives.
40. wi