Margaret 'Peg' Hamor 4-30-2018

Margaret "Peg" Hamor, 97, a native of Grinnell, died April 20, 2018, in Boynton Beach, Fla.

A service will be held June 11 in Lincoln, Neb., with interment at Hazelwood Cemetery in Grinnell at a future date.

She was born in Grinnell June 11, 1920, the daughter of John George Welch Hannay and Mary F. Dunham Hannay. She lived in Grinnell until she left for nurse's training in 1939.

She married Wade Hamor on Nov. 29, 1942, and they lived most of their adult lives in Lincoln, Neb. They moved frequently during Wade's years with the U.S. Army and into his early career years with the Soil Conservation Service. They settled in Lincoln in 1964, and remained there until Peg moved to Florida last August to be near her daughter, Trudy, and spouse Joi Colamonico.

She was a member of Vine UCC and P.E.O.

She is survived by her daughter Trudy Hamor; sister-in-law Ruth Hannay; nieces Mary Hannay O'Connor, Sandra Hamor Bodine, Brenda Hamor Spilios, and Linda Hamor Duncan; and nephews Robert Hamor and Michael Hamor.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband Wade Hamor; brother Edward Hannay; nephews John Hannay and Larry Hamor; and cousins Grinnell and Marion Dunham.
