same time in 1935. Storage holdings of eggs in November were 14 per cent below both the 5-year average and last year's holdings.

hospital in Des Moines at the age of 40 years, 7 months and 11 days. She grew to young womanhood in Sheridan township, Poweshiek county, and lived there all her life with the exception of four years spent in Jasper county. She attended Sheridan public school and also Tama high school.

She was united in marriage to Henry E. Meyer, February 18, 1914, with Rev. W. C. Cleworth officiating. To this union nine children were born: Mrs. Eva Young of El Cerrito, Calif., Beatrice, Lyle, Chilton, Naomi, Maxine, Wesley, Allan and Helen, all at home, who, with the sorrowing husband, remain to mourn her passing.

She united with the Sheridan Methodist church May 12, 1934, but due to failing health was unable to attend.

She was a loving wife and mother, devoted to her home and finding her greatest happiness in caring for her family.

She leaves to mourn her early passing besides the husband and children, one grandson, Harvey Young, five sisters, Mrs. Edith J. Hays, Mrs. Joe Deedrick, and Mrs. Esther Schroeder, all of Grinnell, Mrs. Olive Wright of Bradgate, and Mrs. Gail Oltrogge of Newburg, and four brothers, Joseph Haynes of Ayr, N. D., Robert Haynes of Sheridan, Carl Haynes of Riceville, and Ellis Haynes of Bradgate.

She was preceded in death by two sisters, Calista, who died at the age of eight years, and Mrs. Flora Spire, who died three years ago.

Beautiful toiler, her work was all done,
Beautiful soul into glory gone,
Beautiful life with its crown now won,

God giveth her rest.
She is "at home" on the beautiful hills of God,
By the valley of rest so fair.
Some day, some time, when our task is done,
With joy we shall meet her there.

Funeral services for Mrs. Meyer were held from the Sheridan Methodist church on Saturday, Dec. 26, 1936, at 2:30 p. m., with Rev. W. S. Kight conducting.

The pallbearers were Charles Morrison, Harold Hull, Paul Latham, Raymond Olson, Roy Coburn and John Morrison.

The many beautiful offerings were cared for by Mrs. Paul Latham, Mrs. Roy Coburn and Mrs. Raymond Olson.

The vocalists were Mrs. George Graff and Mrs. Foster Wolcott. Interment was in Sheridan cemetery.

Toys For Santa.

It is interesting to note that at the New York Toy Show held recently there was an absence of toy soldiers and toy sailors. Makers of toys say they are "out" that the child of today wants toys representing our "G-Men," or bandit chasers. And that is the type of toys they are turning out this season. Maybe it's a fine thing. By bringing the G-men up into the front rank of their wares they give tangible proof of the success of J. Edgar Hoover in dramatizing his war on gangsters and kidnapers. They would not fashion G-men out of wood or metal if youngsters did not want such toys. The turning of young minds from emulating gun-men and committing crime to emulating the men who prevent crime or bring about its punishment, constitutes a major achievement in the direction of better citizenship.

James A. Farley, national democratic chairman, may succeed Will Hays as "czar" of the movies. Hays, with salary of $150,000 a year, has had the job 14 years.

The average Grinnell man has a lot of trouble in this world, ninety percent of which he gets by asking for it.

part in progress on the new underpass at the west city limits of Newton these days.

The heavy snow storm a few weeks ago put a stop to all work for three days, but then the men went back to work and have since gone ahead at a rapid pace.

The underpass bridge is all in place and the floor is now under construction.

Engineers said today that "weather permitting" trains will be running over the bridge in "about a month."

Motor vehicle traffic under the bridge will probably not begin until spring, it was pointed out, since there are still several hundred tons of dirt to be moved.—Newton Daily News.
