Douglas Arthur McKinney, son of James and Maxine (Pronge) McKinney, was born July 20, 1953 in Charles City. He was graduated from Montezuma High School in 1972. Doug was a very talented musician and was a member of a band called The Fourth Estate. Following high school,

He attended Drake University receiving his Bachelor Degree in Journalism and Broadcasting in 1977.

October 4, 1980, Doug was united in marriage to Kathi Harding. To this union three children were born, Cody, Cory and Cari. He worked for several years at Newton Manufacturing and also ran a D.J. service, Travel Tunes, for several years with his wife. In 1995, Doug and Kathi opened a steakhouse north of Knoxville, "Rubes of Red Rock", later changing the name to "Udders Steakhouse." Doug and Kathi later divorced but remained friends and sold the business in 2007.

Following his mother's death in 2013, Doug moved back to Montezuma. Doug will be remembered most by his unique sense of humor and getting a laugh out of people.

Doug's memory will be honored by his children, Cody (and girlfriend, Amanda Bruce), Cory McKinney and Cari (Ben) McDermott all of Newton; a granddaughter, Rowyn McDermott of Newton; his ex-wife and very good friend, Kathi McKinney of Newton; longtime friend, Craig McClure, and many good friends.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Jim and Maxine McKinney.
