Guilford Lee Moore was born on June 30, 1913, in Wellman, Iowa, to Thomas John Moore and Erna Bell (Messenger) Moore. He graduated from Grinnell High School in 1931 and studied Agriculture at Iowa State University in Ames, Iowa.

Guilford was united in marriage to Evelyn Serene Lang on September 9, 1935. They were blessed with five children: Joan, Barbara, Fred, Bill and Wanda. Guilford worked at Thompson Grocery and Lang Dairy before farming in the Sheridan, Malcom and Grinnell areas for many years. He and Evelyn retired from farming and moved into their home on 13th Avenue and in 2000 moved to Seeland Park. He was a member of the Grinnell United Methodist Church, director of a country school in the Sheridan area, and a member of the Community Club.

Guilford was a family man and an outdoorsman, who enjoyed fishing with family, farming and raising purebred Duroc hogs. His other enjoyments included coin collecting, bird watching, being with friends, and participating in community activities. Guilford had a love for dark chocolate, homemade fudge, jelly beans and singing at family get-togethers.

Guilford is survived by five children, Joan Stanley of Truro, Iowa, Barbara Fritz of San Antonio, Texas, Fred (Patty) Moore of Broomfield, Colo., Bill (Sue) Moore of Las Cruces, New Mexico, and Wanda (Tim) Armstrong of Grinnell, Iowa; 12 grandchildren; 28 great grandchildren; and 19 great great grandchildren. Guilford was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Evelyn; one sister, Hazel Palmer; two brothers, Howard and Thomas Moore; two sons-in-law, Virgil Stanley and Gene Fritz; two grandchildren, Laura and Gregory Fritz; and two great grandchildren, Brandon Patterson and Rachel Stanley.
