Doreen Mae Bolinger

Apr. 26, 1947 - Sept. 24, 2019

Doreen Bolinger, 72, of What Cheer, died Tuesday, Sept. 24, 2019 at the Keokuk County Health Center. Burial was held privately.

Doreen Mae Bolinger was born April 26, 1947 in Wilks-barre, Penn., the daughter of John and Vera Umlah. After high school she moved to Iowa to attend Central College.

Doreen was married to Glen Olin, however he died at a young age in 1971. She was then united in marriage to Lowell Dean Bolinger in Martinsburg in 1972. To this union came three sons: Jason, Jeremy, and Josh. Over the years Doreen worked at Kingsbury Holmes, Montezuma Manufacturing, Sieda, Midland Metals and Vriendship Village. After her boys were old enough to care for themselves Doreen finished pursuing her degree in Accounting and Business Administration. In 1996 Doreen maintained a 4.0 GPA and received a Bachelor of Arts Degree for William Penn College.

Doreen was a Boy Scout Leader for over ten years. She enjoyed camping, fishing, gardening, canning and cooking.

She is preceded in death by her parents and a husband, Glen Olin.

Doreen is survived by her husband Dean Bolinger of What Cheer, her sons, Jason Bolinger of Ottumwa, Jeremy (Tonda) Bolinger of What Cheer, and Josh Bolinger of Ottumwa, and Mark (Lori) Milligan of Fremont. She also leaves behind two grandsons Zachery and Kaleb Bolinger.
