Dean Wayne Dupee, 65, of Brooklyn died on May 31, 2020, at St. Luke's Hospital in Cedar Rapids, of natural causes.

A Celebration of Life potluck luncheon will be held 1:00 p.m. Sunday, June 21, at the farm home of Arlene Griggs, 2178 Old #6 Road, Victor, Iowa.

Memorial contributions may be designated to the family of Dean Dupee.

Dean was born September 11, 1954, to Claude Andrew Dupee and Clara Esther (Schiller) Dupee in Elkhorn, Wis. He was raised in and received his schooling in the Elkhorn area.

Dean's love for the outdoors lead him west to Colorado Springs, Colo., and Tucson, Ariz. In 1994, he moved to Grinnell and various other towns in Iowa including Woodbine, Dow City, Kellogg, and eventually settling in Brooklyn in 2019.

On July 7, 2007, Dean was united in marriage to Rachel Lynn Wood.

Dean's strong Christian faith shined through with his positive attitude to love every day. He was a kid at heart, who enjoyed traveling, hunting, fishing, camping. He was a fan of all kinds of racing including NASCAR, figure 8, and dirt Track. Dale Earnhardt, Sr. was a favorite. Dean turned his passion for art into a profession by crafting jewelry.

Dean is survived by his wife Rachel; his children Dean (Laura), Michael, Shane Dupee, Kitty Welker, Jason (Mercedes), and Wayne Dupee; 19 grandchildren; 16 great-grandchildren; and siblings Darlene Aukstulis, Dennis Dupee, and Pamela McRae.

He is preceded in death by his parents; two children Cassandra Dupee and Andrew Dupee; one grandchild; and two brothers, Alan and Rudolf Dupee.
