Terry Landers

Terry Landers, 43, formerly of Greene, and who has family in this area, died Saturday, Jan. 25, 2020, as a result of a motor vehicle accident in Alabama. A visitation was held Saturday, Feb. 8, followed by a private family funeral service. Woodley Funeral Home and Cremation Services of Iowa Falls is caring for Terry and his family.

Terry E. Landers was born Aug. 2, 1976, in Charles City to Glenn Edward and Patricia Elaine Butler Landers. He attended Greene Community elementary and high school, then Ellsworth Community College for two years. Terry married Karla Bailey and they had two children; the couple later divorced. Terry enjoyed spending time with his family, cooking, barbequing for his kids watching sports, fishing and animals. He had an artistic talent and especially enjoyed photography, being in nature and photographing the beauty of it.

Terry Landers is survived by his children, Autumn Landers of Kellogg and Alex Landers of Grinnell; mother, Patricia Landers of Mason City; father, Glenn Landers of Greene; ex-wife, Karla Harter of Grinnell; one grandson; sister, Tami Stalzer of Iowa Falls; brother, Shawn Landers of Hays, Kan.; and other relations.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents.
