Raised in Wiesloch, Germany, Helga was 14 years old when WWII ended. Helga was united in marriage to James Leo Rhinehart on April 24, 1954 in Germany where Jim was stationed with the Air Force.

The couple made their home in Brooklyn, where Jim worked for Carpenter's Feed & Seed for 13 years before purchasing the business in 1970. Together Jim and Helga operated Rhinehart's Feed & Seed for 20 years.

Helga enjoyed traveling, classical music and gardening, especially with flowers. She also loved cooking and baking and blessed many with food and meals. Helga was preceded in death by her husband Jim and sister Else. She is survived by her three daughters Linda (Jay) Pringle, Phyllis (Steve) Ellefson, Colleen (Tim) Hunter, and eleven grandchildren and one great grandchild.
