

Sandra Elaine Olive
Oct. 21, 1938 - Feb. 5, 2020

Sandra Olive, 81, of New Sharon passed away Wednesday, Feb. 5, at the Pella Hospice Comfort House.

Sandra Elaine Olive, the daughter of Thomas and Helen (Sanders) Grubb, was born on Oct. 21, 1938 near Barnes City. She was a 1956 graduate of Barnes City High School. On June 8, 1956, Sandra was united in marriage to Richard Olive at the Barnes City United Methodist Church. To this union three daughters were born, Cindi, Dee and Cheryl. Sandra held various jobs before working at Vermeer Manufacturing in Pella for several years. She enjoyed playing on the computer, reading, jigsaw puzzles and crocheting. She was a faithful member of the New Sharon First Christian Church and a member of the Loyal Daughters.

Her legacy will honored by her daughters, Cindi (Mike) Burggraaf of Fairfield, Dee (Curtis) Williams of New Sharon and Cheryl (Gary) Goemaat of New Sharon; 10 grandchildren, 26 great-grandchildren; her brother, Michael (Nancy) Grubb of Arton, Alabama; her special nieces, Teresa (John) Fondren and Christie Hall; several great nieces and nephews; her brother-in-law, Everett (Michelle) Olive; her sister-in-law, Rae Tucker and many other relatives and friends.

Sandra was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Richard Olive; her great granddaughter, Naomi Phillips.

RECORDED 2-13-2020