

Henry Hoogendoorn, 92, Pella

Henry Hoogendoorn, 92, of Pella passed away June 28, 2006. Funeral services were held July 1, at the Faith Christian Reformed Church in Pella. Memorials can be given to Peoria Christian Grade School and Pella Christian Schools.

H. Hoogendoorn

Henry Hoogendoorn, son of Cornelis and Anna (Brouwer) Hoogendoorn, was born in Vinkeveen, Utrecht, the Netherlands on March 19, 1914.

Henry served as a private in the Dutch army and joined the Dutch underground during the German occupation of the Netherlands.

On May 29, 1941, Henry was united in marriage to Tena De Haan. Seven children were born to this union. At age 33, Henry and his family immigrated to the United States. They established their first home in Eddyville, then moved to Williamsburg, then Peoria and later Pella.

Henry was a charter member of the Faith Christian Reformed Church.

He is survived by his wife, Tena of Pella; his children: Anne and Marv Kaluf of De Motte, Indiana; Case and Pat Hoogendoorn of Oak Park, Illinois; Tena and Wayne Vos of Prospect, Oregon; Nancy and George De Vries of Palm Desert, California; Sandi and Ken Vos of Johnson City, Texas; Mary and Art Hoekstra of Kalamazoo, Michigan; and Helene and Ken Tukker of Pella; 21 grandchildren; 16 grandchildren-in-law; 34 great-grandchildren; and four sisters: Jannie Verrips, Alene De Heer, Annie (Henk) Sloeserwy and Corrie Voshart, all the the Netherlands.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

DT JUL 2 2006