Ruby A. Klyn, 95, of Pella passed away April 22, 2006. Funeral services were held April 25, at the Garden Chapel Funeral Home in Pella. Memorials can be given to Hospice of Pella.

Ruby Augusta Hasselman Klyn, daughter of August and Alice

Van Woerkom R. Klyn Hasselman was born Nov. 25, 1910, near Murphy. As a young girl she attended Christian Endeavor, Girl's Society, and the Martha Circle at her church.

On Feb. 12, 1931, Ruby was united in marriage with Harold Garrett Klyn in Sully. To this union two children were born: Keith and Shirley. The family lived in the Sully area where Ruby worked as a waitress and cook in several area restaurants. She also owned and operated a restaurant in Newton for seven years. After Harold and Ruby retired in 1970, they moved to Pella.

She is survived by her two children and their spouses: Keith and Evelyn Klyn of Peru, Illinois and Shirley and Larry Cogley of Pella. Five grandchildren and their spouses: Steven and Connie Cogley of Pella, David and Sherry Cogley of Pella, Terry Morales of San Antonio, Texas, Judy Klyn of Albany, California, and Jolene Bounds of Colorado Springs, Colorado; 12 great-grandchildren; seven great-great-grandchildren; and one brother: Francis Hasselman of Oskaloosa. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; two sisters: Agnes Mol and Artie McComber; and two grandsons: Roger Klyn and Scott Cogley.
