June De Zwarte, the daughter of Gerrit and Gertie Slykhuis De Zwarte, was born on June 22, 1925, near Flagler in Marion County. She attended the North Flagler Country Grade School and graduated from Pella Community High School in Pella. As a young girl June made her home with her older sister and brother, Irene and Wayne Geetings and her brother, Bob De Zwarte. June went to the stock car races in Oskaloosa, on a blind date with Lynn Duane Moore and received an engagement ring on Sept. 1, 1948. Subsequently they were united in marriage on Dec. 23, 1948, at 1315 Main Street in Pella and to this union two children were born: Lynda and Michael. Following their marriage June and Lynn lived most of their married life in Pella.

Those who will cherish her memory are her two children and their spouses, four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren: Lynda S. and Michael Hommer of West Des Moines, Jessica and Don Hamilton of Des Moines, Tyler John, Lexi Lynn Hamilton, Mary Jo and William Dennison of Woodstock, Illinois, Jack Dennison; Michael L. and Kathy (Maher) Moore of Pella, Jenni Moore of Madison, Wisconsin, Jackie Moore of Pella.

Of her original family June leaves her sister-in-law, Jennie (Wayne) Geetings of Pella and the following brothers-in-law and sister-in-law: Bill (Frances Moore) Johnston of Hot Springs, Arkansas, Rex and Marilyn Moore of Indianola, and Max Moore of Russell. June was preceded in death by her husband, Lynn; her parents, Gerrit and Gertie De Zwarte; her sister and her husband, Irene and William Vander Beek; her brother, Wayne Geetings; and her younger brother and his wife, Bob and Neva De Zwarte. June was a longtime, faithful member of the First Baptist Church in Pella.
