

Charles "Beanie" Morrison, 76

Charles "Beanie" Morrison, 76, of Eldora and formerly of Montezuma, died Friday, Aug. 18, 2006 at the Eldora Nursing and Rehab Center, Eldora.

His funeral service was Monday,

Aug. 21, at Watts Funeral Home, Montezuma.

Charles Richard Morrison, the son of Eugene and Mildred Stanley Morrison, was born on Sept. 28, 1929 in Unionville. He graduated from Centerville High School with the Class of 1947. On June 7, 1949 he was united in marriage with Jacquetta McKern at Centerville. Charles had worked for Hy-Vee and had owned and operated the Gamble Hardware Store in Montezuma. He had worked for 15 years at Holland Plastics and had worked for over 15 years for Watts Vault Company, Montezuma. He was a member of the Methodist Church in Montezuma. Charles loved his family. He enjoyed fishing, hunting, golfing and puzzles.

Those left to honor his memory include his wife, Jacquetta Morrison, of Montezuma; his son, Craig Eugene Morrison of Montezuma; his daughters, Christy May Hall and Cindy Kay Hudnut of Montezuma; his grandchildren, Chad, Shaun, Kara, Ryan, Tim, Pat, Darcy, Jalessa; his great-granddaughter, Isabelle; and his brother, Gary Morrison of Silvis, Ill.

Memorials in his name may be directed to the Montezuma Ambulance Department.

Charles Morrison

Charles "Beanie" Morrison, 76, of Montezuma died Friday, Aug. 18, 2006, at the Eldora Nursing and Rehab Center in Eldora.

Funeral services for Charles Morrison were held today (Monday) at 2 p.m. at the Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma. A visitation was held Sunday from 6 to 8 p.m., also at the funeral home.

Born Sept. 28, 1929, in Unionville, Iowa, he was the son of Eugene and Mildred Stanley Morrison. He graduated from Centerville High School with the class of 1947.

On June 7, 1949, he married Jacquetta McKern, in Centerville.

He worked for Hy-Vee and owned and operated the Gambles' Hardware Store in Montezuma, then worked for 15 years for Holland Plastics and had worked for more than 15 years for the Watts Vault Company in Montezuma.

He was a member of the Methodist Church in Montezuma. He loved his family and enjoyed fishing, hunting, golfing and puzzles.

He is survived by his wife; his son, Craig Eugene Morrison of Montezuma; his daughters, Christy May Hall and Cindy Kay Hudnut of Montezuma; eight grandchildren; one great-granddaughter; and his brother, Gary Morrison of Silvis, Ill. He was preceded in death by his parents and a brother, Donald.

Memorials may be left in Charles Morrison's name to the Montezuma Ambulance fund, care of Watts Funeral Home.