

Michael K. Mulford

Michael K. Mulford, 52, of Rock Creek Lake, Kellogg, died Monday, April 24, 2006, at his home.

No service is planned. Memorials in his name may be made to the Kellogg Historical Society. Arrangements are in charge of Smith Funeral Home.

He was born April 18, 1954, in Grinnell to Robert and June Veber Mulford. He was raised in the Grinnell area and graduated from Grinnell High School with the class of 1972. He received the bachelor of arts degree in business administration from the University of Iowa in 1975 and a graduate degree in international management from the American Graduate School of International Management, Thunderbird Campus, in Glendale, Ariz., in 1976. He also received the master of business administration degree from the University of Miami Graduate School of Business, Coral Gables, Fla., graduating first in his class. He received the master of public administration degree from Drake University Graduate School of Business and Public Administration in 1978, then received the juris doctorate degree from the Drake University School of Law in 1979. He also received the master of law degree in international law from the University of Miami Graduate School of Law in Coral Gables after which he took, passed and was admitted into both the Iowa and Florida Bar Associations.

He worked as a political consultant in the United States Congressional, United States Senate and foreign political campaigns, forming the international law firm of Mulford and Lindo with offices in the United States, Mexico, Caribbean, Central America and Africa. He was a member of the Republican party and the Sons of the American Revolution.

He is survived by one son, Jarod Mulford of Blackburg, Va. He was preceded in death by his parents.