Tyler Clifford Feisel, age 39, of San Francisco, California, passed away Wednesday, March 31, 2021, at his home. Tyler was born in Pusan, South Korea, on October 22, 1981, and was adopted at the age of two by his parents, David Lynn and Celesta Avon (McDonald) Feisel. Tyler was welcomed home by sisters: Kimberly, Karen, and Kellie. At the age of four, Tyler's parents adopted his two-year-old sister, Stefanie.

Tyler began his school years in Chariton and was involved in sports and school plays. He enjoyed his time in Patch Club at Grace Baptist Church.

At age 14, the family moved to Grinnell where he attended high school and graduated with the class of 2000. Tyler was very active in sports. His favorite was tennis. He also enjoyed football and baseball. He participated for four years in all three. During those years, Tyler was active in the youth group at Calvary Baptist Church. He especially cherished the memories of the mission trip they took to Colorado with Pastor Ken and Joanna Fields.

His first job was at Dairy Queen in Grinnell where he earned enough money to purchase his first car, a "Chevy Spectrum" of which he was so proud.

Tyler attended Iowa State University 2001 through 2005, studying business. After leaving Iowa State, he worked various jobs in Iowa before moving to California to start a new chapter in his life. In 2010, after meeting new friends and working different jobs, he joined Genentech Biotechnology Company as an audiovisual specialist. At the time of his death, he was a management associate at Genentech. Through his years at Genentech, he always enjoyed his work and everyone he worked with.

Tyler is survived by his parents, Dave and Avon Feisel; sisters: Karen Fitzgerald, Kellie Abrahamson, and Stefanie Glover; nephews and nieces: Chad (Tammy) Krutsinger, Brianne (Bruce) Bennett, Brandon Fitzgerald, Alicia Poland, Hilary (Cole) Braaksma, Raegan Holmes, Jamie Holmes, Grace Glover, and Willow Glover; 12 great nieces and nephews; as well as uncles, aunts, cousins, extended family, and friends.

Preceding Tyler in death were his grandparents: Clifford and June Feisel and Everett and Marie McDonald; sister, Kimberly Krutsinger; and great niece, Mali Krutsinger.
