Dr. C. H. Lauder, 69,
Former Resident,
Dies In California

A former resident of Grinnell, Dr. Clark Hays Lauder, 69, died of a heart attack at his home in Monrovia, Calif., on Sept. 29. Funeral services were held in Arcadia with burial in Altadena, Calif.

The eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, who retired several months ago, was a practicing physician in Grinnell for several years. He moved to California 18 years ago and practiced at Arcadia and Monrovia.

Known as a civic leader in California, Dr. Lauder also was a charter member and past president of the San Gabriel Valley Begonia Society and also a prominent orchid grower.

A native of Iowa, the specialist was a graduate of the state university medical school. Surviving Dr. Lauder are his wife, Fern; two sons, Dr. John W. Lauder and Dr. Clark H. Lauder, Jr., of Temple City, Calif.; a daughter, Mrs. Bettie Groat of Arcadia; a sister, Mrs. Ruth Gripp of Los Angeles; and eight grandchildren.
