Patrick Riley, 60, of Grinnell, died at North Mahaska Specialty Care in Oskaloosa, with his family by his side.

A graveside service will be held at 11 a.m., Tuesday, Aug. 24, at Jackson Township Cemetery in Montezuma.

Memorials can be directed to the Patrick Riley Memorial Fund and may be sent in care of Cox-Smith Funeral and Cremation Service, PO Box 163, Grinnell, Iowa 50112.

Pat was born on March 12, 1961, the son of Max and Agnes Tish Riley, in Sigourney. He attended Delta Elementary and Sigourney Jr. and Sr. High School. Pat was an over-the-road truck driver and later a combine operator. He enjoyed farming, watching TV, mushroom hunting and fishing. He also liked big rig trucks, rock music, muscle cars and watching Millennial Farmers on YouTube, often buying their shirts. Pat loved spending time with his children and grandchildren.

He is survived by his children, Jesse Riley of Eddyville, Christopher Riley of Pella and Patricia Thompson of Helena, Ga.; eight grandchildren; his sisters Teresa Ehret of Pella and Diana Sherman of Oskaloosa; and other relations.

Pat was preceded in death by his parents and an infant brother, Mark Riley.
