

Gregory Clayton Tiedemann

Gregory Clayton Tiedemann, 67, of Bella Vista, Ark., and formerly of Grinnell, died Thursday, Feb. 3, 2022, in McAllen, Texas, while on vacation with his wife, Barbara, by his side.

There are no services planned at this time but a family gathering to honor his life will be held at a later date.

Memorial contributions in his name can be made to: Bella Vista Public Library Foundation, 11 Dickens Place,

Bella Vista, Arkansas 727214. Memories and condolences may be shared with Greg's family on the Smith Funeral Home website at www.smithfh.com.

Gregory Clayton Tiedemann was born in Grinnell on Jan. 1, 1955, to Clayton and Wannetta Tiedemann. He graduated from Grinnell High School with the class of 1975, and later graduated from Schenectady County Community College in New York State.

Greg married Barbara Prentiss on Nov. 25, 1978. He enjoyed many professions throughout his life but most of all enjoyed his years of work with Pepsi Cola, from which he retired in 2012 as plant manager in St Louis, Mo. He then started another career with Niagara Bottling as plant director in Denver, Colo., and retired once again in 2020. His retirement dream was to play golf and enjoy the sport of trap shooting, which brought them to Bella Vista, Ark.

He is survived by his wife, Barbara; sister, Joyce Ingels; and many other relations and friends.

Greg was preceded in death by his parents and his brother Gean.
