Sister Mary Kevin Ryan Dies Of Heart Attack

Sister Mary Kevin Ryan, a member of the staff of St. Francis hospital for the past 10 years died at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning of a sudden heart attack. Sister Mary broke her leg near the hip in a fall on Nov. 24, but had been making an excellent recovery and seemed in fine health and spirits up to the time she was stricken.

Sister Mary was born Dec. 24, 1876, in Ballinahinch, Ireland, the daughter of Patrick and Mary Ryan.

Funeral services will be held Friday morning at 9 o'clock in the St. Francis chapel with burial in Calvary cemetery, Grinnell.
