

Janice Arlene Strovers

Janice Arlene Strovers, 81; of Newton, died Wednesday, May 3, 2023, at MercyOne Newton Medical Center. A graveside service will be held at 10:30 a.m., Tuesday, May 9, 2023, at Our Silent City Cemetery in Kellogg. The family will greet friends after the service at Pleasant View United Methodist Church in rural Newton. Memorials to Jasper County Conservation or the Kellogg Cemetery Association can be brought to the service or left at the Wallace Family Funeral Home and Crematory in Newton.

Janice, the daughter of Lester R. and Alice Allen Strovers, was born April 14, 1942, in Grinnell. She graduated from Newton High School in 1960. She worked at DeLong Sportswear in Grinnell and then for the Maytag Company in Newton until retirement. Janice loved being outdoors, tending to her sheep and chickens or working in her garden. She was a member of the Kellogg Museum.

Those left to honor Janice's memory include her siblings Mary Lou Fairleigh of Torrance, Calif., Norma Jean Clubb of Mt. Pleasant, Betty Steenhoek of Newton, Peggy Farver of Chariton, Ken Strovers of Cedar Rapids, Bev Strovers of Orville, Calif., Wayne Strovers of Chariton, Denny Strovers of Van Buren, Ariz., and Dave Strovers of Kellogg; and many other relations.

She was preceded in death by her parents; brothers, Lester Jr., Vernon, and Jim; and sister, Dorothy.

64-R 5-8-2023