

Bryan D. Sindt, 46

Bryan D. Sindt, 46, died Monday, June 25, 2007, at University of Iowa Hospital, Iowa City.

A visitation with a private family burial following was held on Saturday, June 30.

Watts Funeral Home, Montezuma, was in charge of the arrangements.

Bryan Douglas Sindt, the son of Dale Edwin Antrim and Marylee Phillips, was born Nov. 18, 1960, in Kansas City, Mo. He graduated from North Scott Senior High School, Eldridge, with the class of 1979. He graduated from William Penn College in 1990 and taught science classes at the Deep River-Millersburg and New Sharon Schools.

On July 9, 1991, Bryan was united in marriage with Rebecca Sexauer in Oskaloosa. He loved his family. Bryan enjoyed target shooting, being with his dogs, working on his Camaro, fishing, carpentry, being in nature and going on road trips with Rebecca. Bryan and Rebecca currently operated Freedom Forest Botanical Organic Farming and Saw Mill in Deep River.

Those left to honor the memory of Bryan include his wife, Rebecca Sexauer-Sindt of Deep River; his son, Michael (Tonia) Backous of Des Moines; his daughters, Angela Fawcett of Marion, Belinda Backous of Greeley, Colo., Tasha Rumbaugh of Iowa City, Mia Rumbaugh of Des Moines; his grandchildren, Ross Fawcett and Gavin Backous; his mother, Marylee Phillips Antrim Sindt of Bettendorf; his brothers, David Sindt of Bettendorf, Dan Sindt of Dixon; his sister, Melissa (Joe) Steinke of Bettendorf; his niece and his three nephews.

Bryan was preceded in death by his father; his stepfather, Robert W. Sindt, and his grandparents.

Memorials may be designated in Bryan's name to Doctors Without Borders.

MR 7/3/2007