

Glenn H. Slagle

Glenn H. Slagle, 93, of Brooklyn died Friday, June 8, 2007, in Brooklyn Community Estates.

Funeral services for Glenn Slagle will be held at 10:30 a.m. on Wednesday, June 13, at Grace United Methodist Church in Brooklyn with Rev. David Rogula officiating. Musician will be Marilyn Kriegel. Honorary casket bearers will include Diane Foster, Kim Morris, Michelle Walz and Jennifer Walz. Casket bearers will include Eugene May, Jim May, Dean Slagle, Don Slagle, Scott Slagle and Matthew Walz. Interment will be in Brooklyn memorial Cemetery.

Visitation will be from 5 to 7 p.m. Tuesday at the Nevenhoven Funeral Home.

He was born Oct. 8, 1913, the son of Charles F. and Mertie Owens Slagle, at the family's farm home in Rock Creek Township. He attended a rural school and graduated from Montezuma High School in 1932. He assisted with farming until 1936, when he entered into business with Swift and Co. in Newton.

In 1938 he married Fern Thompson and they made their home in Newton in 1946, they established a home in Brooklyn, known as "Brookside Acres."

He worked with the Brooklyn Co-op Creamery Association for 25 years and acted as a trustee upon its dissolution. He also farmed and raised livestock and helped the BGM school district in its transportation and food service departments.

He was a member of Grace United Methodist Church, the Kiwanis Club, and the Farm Bureau and an honorary member of the FFA. He was a member of the American Quarter Horse Association and the Iowa Horse Councils and a life member of the American Shetland Pony Club. He was a member of the Area Six Midwest Pony Breeders Association and the Iowa Draft Pony Association. He was a 4-H leader and fair superintendent for many years. He was also a devoted community and family man.

His parents, his wife, a son, William, three brothers, Lester, Gilbert and Leonard, and a son-in-law, Robert May preceded him in death.

He is survived by his children, Theda May of Malcom, Robert Slagle of Malcom and Linda Walz of Tama; ten grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; and three step-great-grandchildren.

A memorial fund has been established in his name.

HR
6/11/07

MR 6/13/2007 Glenn H. Slagle, 93

Glenn H. Slagle, 93, of Brooklyn, died Friday, June 8, 2007, at Brooklyn Community Estates, Brooklyn.

His funeral service will be held at 10:30 a.m. on Wednesday, June 13, at Grace United Methodist Church, Brooklyn, with the Rev. David Rogula officiating. The musician will be Marilyn Kriegel.

Honorary casket-bearers will be Diane Foster, Kim Morris, Michelle Walz and Jennifer Walz.

Casket-bearers will be Eugene May, Jim May, Dean Slagle, Don Slagle, Scott Slagle and Matthew Walz. Interment will be at Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery. Visitation hours are 5 to 7 p.m. on Tuesday at Nevenhoven Funeral Home, Brooklyn.

Glenn, son of Charles and Mertie Owens Slagle was born Oct. 8, 1913, at the farm home, Rock Creek Township, Jasper County. He attended a rural school and graduated from Montezuma High School in 1932. He then assisted with farming until 1936 when he entered into business with Swift & Company in Newton. In 1938 he was united in marriage to Fern Thompson and they made their home in Newton. In 1946 they established their home in Brooklyn known as "Brookside Acres."

Glenn was associated with The Brooklyn Co-op Creamery Association for 25 years of which he was a trustee upon its dissolution. He also farmed and raised livestock. He helped in the BGM transportation and food service departments.

He was a member of Grace United Methodist Church, Kiwanis Club, Farm Bureau and an honorary member of FFA. He was a member of the American Quarter Horse Association, The Iowa Horse Councils, and a life member of the American Shetland Pony Club. He was a member of the Area Six Midwest Pony Breeders Association and the Iowa Draft Pony Association. He was a 4-H leader and fair superintendent for many years. Glenn was a devoted community and family man.

His wife died June 30, 2005 and a son, William, three brothers, Lester Slagle, Gilbert Slagle and Leonard Slagle, and a son-in-law, Robert May, preceded him in death.

Surviving are his children, Theda May of Malcom; Robert Slagle and wife Pat of Malcom and Linda Walz and husband Roger of Tama; 10 grandchildren, Eugene May, Diane Foster, Jim May, Kim Morris, Scott Slagle, Dean Slagle, Don Slagle, Michelle Walz, Jennifer Walz and Matthew Walz; four great-grandchildren, Tyler Slagle, Lauren Slagle, Tanner Foster and Tucker Foster; and three step-great-grandchildren, Alana Grace, Aaron Grace and Ben Rae.

A memorial fund has been established.

Glenn H. Slagle, 93

Glenn H. Slagle, 93, of Brooklyn died Friday, June 8, 2007, in Brooklyn Community Estate, Brooklyn.

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a.m. on Wednesday, June 13, at Grace United Methodist Church, Brooklyn. Rev. David Rogula will officiate and the musician will be Marilyn Kriegel. Honorary casket-bearers were Diane Foster, Kim Morris, Michelle Walz and Jennifer Walz. Casket-bearers will be Eugene May, Jim May, Dean Slagle, Don Slagle, Scott Slagle, and Matthew Walz. Interment will be in Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery.

A memorial fund has been established.

Glenn H. Slagle, son of Charles F. and Mertie Owens Slagle, was born Oct. 8, 1913, at the farm home, Rock Creek Township, Jasper County. He attended a rural school and graduated from the Montezuma High School in 1932. He then assisted with farming until 1936, when he entered into business with Swift & Company in Newton.

In 1938, he was united in marriage to Fern Thompson and they made their home in Newton. In 1946 they established their home in Brooklyn, known as "Brookside Acres." Glenn was associated with The Brooklyn Co-op Creamery Association for 25 years of which he was a trustee upon its dissolution. He also farmed and raised livestock. He also helped in the BGM transportation and food service departments.

Glenn was a member of Grace United Methodist Church, Kiwanis Club, Farm Bureau and honorary member of F. F. A. He was a member of the American Quarter Horse Association, The Iowa Horse Councils, and life member of the American Shetland Pony Club. He was a member of the Area Six Midwest Pony Breeders Association and the Iowa Draft Pony Association. He was a 4-H leader and fair superintendent for many years. Glenn was a devoted community and family man.

His parents; his wife who died June 30, 2005; a son, William; three brothers, Lester Slagle, Gilbert Slagle and Leonard Slagle; and a son-in-law, Robert May preceded him in death.

Surviving are his children, Theda May of Malcom, Robert Slagle and wife, Pat of Malcom, and Linda Walz and husband, Roger of Tama; ten grandchildren, Eugene May, Diane Foster, Jim May, Kim Morris, Scott Slagle, Dean Slagle, Don Slagle, Michelle Walz, Jennifer Walz, and Matthew Walz; four great-grandchildren, Tyler Slagle, Lauren Slagle, Tanner Foster and Tucker Foster; and three step-great-grandchildren, Alana Grace, Aaron Grace and Ben Rae.

BC 6/13/2007