

Randall L. Clark, 75

Randall L. Clark, 75, of Brooklyn, a former resident of Des Moines, died Thursday, Jan. 10, 2008, in a motor vehicle accident three miles west of Brooklyn on U.S. Highway 6.

Funeral services for Randall Clark were held at 11 a.m. on Monday, Jan. 14, at the Nevenhoven Funeral Home, Brooklyn. Pastor Rodney Horrigan of Lighthouse Revival Church officiated. Interment was in Highland Memory Gardens, Des Moines. A memorial fund has been established.

Randall Lewis Clark was born on Dec. 13, 1932, in Des Moines. His parents were Lewis Randall Clark and Zerelda Hon Clark. He was married to Janiece Ann Brown on Oct. 4, 1952, in Des Moines. They were the parents of four children, Randy, Brenton, Dennis and Karen. Randall received his education in Des Moines attending North High. He was employed for many years as a diesel mechanic for MTA of Des Moines. In 1976, they moved to Brooklyn. Mrs. Clark died in 1996. He served with the U.S. Air Force from Feb. 1, 1950, to Jan. 31, 1954. Randall was a member of several camping clubs and the American Legion of Brooklyn. He enjoyed the outdoors, camping, hunting, fishing, spending time with his family and tinkering around his house and cars.

His parents; his wife, Janiece; and two sisters, Janet Cunningham and Rosemary Clark, preceded him in death.

Surviving are his children, Randy Clark of Des Moines, Brenton Clark of Harvey, Dennis Clark and his wife, Rita, of West Des Moines; one daughter, Karen Garringer and her husband, Tim, of Brooklyn; two brothers, Richard Clark of Des Moines, and Robert Clark of Council Bluffs; eleven grandchildren, Melanie Brauer, Meliha Clark, Brenton Clark II, Janine Clark, Kelly Clark, Amanda Clark, Eric Garringer, Amy Garringer, Matthew Garringer, Dallas Clark and Nicholas Clark; and two great-grandchildren, Tristan Garringer and Taelyn Garringer.

BC 1/16/08