He also enjoyed camping and fishing trips to Minnesota and, when he was younger, many weekend fishing trips to the Iowa River with friends. He also enjoyed both flower and vegetable gardening. Most important to him was his family, to whom he was a mentor and helpful in many ways.

He was a lifetime member of the Grinnell Eagles Lodge and a member of the American Legion.

In 1986 he attended his first ship reunion in Las Vegas, meeting up with old friends, with several of whom he continued to keep in touch.

Y., Dodie Telfer of Newton, Jackie Akery of Brooklyn and Ann Huggins of Siloam Springs, Ark.; four grandchildren and eight grandchildren.
