

Geneva "Jennie" See, 77, of Grinnell died Sunday, Aug. 19, at Friendship Manor of complications from a stroke.

A graveside service was held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at Westfield Cemetery south of Grinnell, with the Rev. Ken Wallace, pastor of the Newburg-Chester Congregational Church, officiating. Pallbearers were Ron Cooper, Tracy Rosburg, Jim Cooper, Tabitha Jensen, Ryan Hall and Kaylee Cooper. The Smith Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The daughter of Clarence and Anna Lee Guynn Leighty, she was born May 27, 1924, in Licking, Mo. She was raised in Mountain Grove, Mo., and attended Mountain Grove High School.

She moved to Grinnell in 1946 and was employed at several restaurants and, later, with McNally's Foods.

She was married to Harry A. See May 11, 1954, in Kirksville, Mo., and the couple continued to live in Grinnell. She was employed in sales with several Grinnell businesses, including Coast to Coast, JCPenney's, Graham's and Tiger Ford. She retired in 1974.

During her retirement, she sold Avon products and worked as a volunteer for the Grinnell Senior Center. She was a member of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Surviving are her husband; one daughter, Bonnie Cooper of Kellogg; one brother, Marvin Davidson of Salida, Colo.; two sisters, Irene Greer and Georgia Rhodes, both of Grinnell; three grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; two brothers, Everett Leighty and Arvel Davidson; and two sisters, Marie Green and Marcell Davidson.
