

Paul Douglas Powell

The Record-Tribune, Day 04/23/2025

Jan. 16, 1945-Mar. 22, 2025

Paul Douglas (Doug) Powell was born Jan. 16, 1945 in Goshen, IN, the son of Lewis and Rachel Byler Powell. When he was 18 months old, the family moved to South English to work in the family Powell Funeral Home and Hardware business.

Doug grew up in South

English until his family moved to Keota in 1955. He graduated from Keota High School in 1963 and the University of Northern Iowa in 1967. He served in the National Guard. Doug was united in marriage to Terry J. Jungbluth in Washington, Aug. 25, 1973. They lived in Wellman most of their married life, where Doug managed the Powell Furniture stores. After selling the Furniture stores, Doug traveled for 40 years as a sales representative for Chromcraft and several other furniture lines. They retired and moved to Montezuma in 2015. He was a loyal and trusted member of the Horseshoe Gun Club for over 50 years. He had served on the Wellman City Council and the Mid-Prairie School Board. Doug enjoyed hunting at the marsh, watching the Hawkeyes, was an avid golfer (getting six holes-in-one), his greatest joy was being a proud grandpa to his grandchildren. Doug passed away Saturday, Mar. 22, 2025, at Iowa Lutheran Hospital in Des Moines from complications of a recent surgery at the age of 80 years.

Doug is survived by his wife T.J. of Montezuma; two sons, Aaron (Kim) Powell and Paul Powell, both of Des Moines; a daughter, Taylor (Ari) Alberg of Portland, OR; three grandchildren, Nadia Powell, Morgynne Powell, and Emmett Alberg; a brother, Jared (Jacque) Powell of Williamsburg; and three nieces and a nephew.

Doug was preceded in death by his parents and a sister Nancy Adams and a niece Leslie.

Celebration of life service was Thursday, Mar. 27, at the Powell Funeral Home in Wellman. Burial was held in the Wellman Cemetery. A memorial fund has been established for the Montezuma Golf Course. Messages and tributes may be directed to powellfuneralhomes.com.
