

Dale E. Evans ^{HR} Dec 29, 2008

Dale E. Evans, 74, of San Francisco, Calif., formerly of Lynnville, died Tuesday, Jan. 13, 2009, at San Francisco General Hospital.

A graveside service will be held at a later date at Lynnville Friends Church.

He served in the United States Army from 1954 to 1957. During the 1960s and 1970s, he owned the Pinecrest Pipe and Tobacco Shop. For many years he worked at Saint Francis Memorial Hospital in San Francisco where he managed distribution of surgical supplies.

He is survived by his sister Barbara Paul of Grinnell; his brother Dennis Evans of Newton; four nephews; three great nephews and one great niece.