

GH 2/13/08
Pamela Rae King

Pamela Rae King, 50, of Claremore, Okla., formerly of Grinnell, died Thursday, Feb. 21, 2008, at her home.

A funeral service was held Feb. 25 at Musgrove-Merriott-Smith Chapel in Claremore with burial following in Woodlawn Cemetery.

She was born May 8, 1957, in Tulsa, Okla., the daughter of Orval and Barbara Collett. As a young girl her family moved to Grinnell where she attended school. In 1985 she moved to Claremore where she began working for Rolling Hills Nursing Home. She later became employed by Allied Signal building catalytic converters. Her hobbies included listening to music, attending concerts and spending time with friends.

She is survived by her daughter, Tandy King of Phoenix, Ariz.; her mother Barbara Dudenhoeffer of Claremore; her father Orval Collett of Grinnell; her brothers, Blaine W. Collett of Claremore; Chadd Collett of Ottumwa and Sean Collett of Marshfield, Mo.; her half brother Heath Collett of Des Moines, and her grandmother, Edna Curd of Claremore.