—Yesterday at two o'clock occurred the death of one of the oldest persons in this county, Mrs. Margaret Adams, who died at the home of John Morrison in Washington township at 104 years of age. Short services will be held at the house, six and a half miles southeast of here, at nine o'clock tomorrow morning conducted by the Rev. Mr. Huebner of Brooklyn after which the remains will be taken to the Moravian church south of Brooklyn for interment which will take place about half past twelve.
