Saturday Rites Set Here For Frank Agnew, 74

Frank Agnew, 74, of Rte. 2, Grinnell died Wednesday evening at a local hospital following an illness of about six months. He had been hospitalized the last month.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday from the Smith Funeral Home with the Rev. Charles Landis, pastor of the United Presbyterian church, officiating. Interment will be in Hazelwood cemetery with graveside rites by the Grinnell American Legion post.

The son of David and Sarah Patterson Agnew, he was born in Ontario, Canada, on March 29, 1889. Soon after his birth the family moved to Michigan and when he was nine years old, moved to Iowa and settled on a farm near Ewart.

He was united in marriage with Emily Watson on Oct. 8, 1919. Mr. and Mrs. Agnew farmed in the Ewart neighborhood on the same farm for many years until retiring and moving to Grinnell.

During World War I he served in the U. S. Army.

He was a member of the United Presbyterian church, Focht-Tennant Post No. 53 of the Grinnell American Legion, and Stanley - Marchellino Post No. 3932 of the Grinnell Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Survivors include his widow, Emily, and one sister, Mrs. H. C. (Mary) Latcham of Grinnell.

He was preceded in death by his parents; four brothers, David, Robert, Alfred, and Paul Agnew; and two sisters, Mrs. Susan Bridge and Mrs. Emma Cleland.
