

EARLY RESIDENT DIES

R. B. Alexander Passes Away at
His Home on Summer
Street.

19 - 34 - 1918
HAD LIVED HEREABOUTS
SINCE 1875

Came to Grinnell in 1879 — Was Here At the Time of the Cyclone.

Another pioneer resident and respected citizen passed away yesterday morning. He with his family had lived in Grinnell and Chester since 1875.

At the time of the cyclone they lived in Grinnell, and had their house blown down over their heads. One son, William, was killed by the storm.

Two sons, Hugh and Emory, with their mother, survive him.

The funeral will be held Thursday forenoon at 10 o'clock, at the house.
