

Mrs. Allen Dies at 54

July 24 1940

Mrs. J. W. Allen, 54, farm wife living north of Grinnell, died at the St. Francis hospital at Grinnell at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening. Suffering with diabetes, she had been seriously ill since last Friday and entered the hospital for care the morning of her death.

Funeral services will be conducted at the Sacred Heart church Saturday morning at 10 o'clock with interment following in the Sacred Heart cemetery.

Zoa Daniels was born in Benton Harbor, Mich., on Feb. 21, 1884, and came to Iowa and Jasper county in 1909. She and Mr. Allen lived on a farm south of Newton for 22 years, later moving to near Grinnell.

She was a member of the Catholic church.

Surviving are her husband, five children, Mrs. L. R. Strovers of Kellogg, Mrs. Lee Emmert of Grinnell and Mrs. Fred Lewellen, jr., J. W. Jr., and Robert at home.

Also there are 11 grandchildren, three brothers, Cloise and George Daniels of Chicago, Allie of Soft Center, Minn., and a sister, Mrs. Jessie Patterson of Newton.
