

Carroll Anderson

Carroll L. Anderson, 60, rural Kellogg, died Tuesday evening, May 19, at University Hospital in Iowa City of an infection following a kidney disease.

A funeral service will be held Saturday, May 23, at 10 a.m. at Wallace-Pence Funeral Home in Newton with the Rev. William Long of the Kellogg United Methodist Church and the Rev. Robert Waters of St. Paul Lutheran Church of Kellogg officiating. Friends may call at the funeral home after 8 a.m. Friday and visitation with the family will take place from 6:30 to 8 p.m. Friday at the funeral home. Burial will be in Newton Memorial Park Cemetery. Memorials may be made to the National Kidney Foundation of Iowa, Kellogg United Methodist Church, Kellogg Lutheran Church or a charity of the donor's choice.

H-R May 21, 1992
He was born July 17, 1931, in Newton, the son of Lawrence W. and Ruby J. Gist Anderson. He was a 1950 graduate of Newton Senior High School, then served in the Korean Conflict, afterward entering the former Iowa State College, Ames, where he graduated in 1957 with degrees in agronomy and vocational agriculture. He later received a degree in industrial arts and education from Iowa State. He taught at Gruver High School, SEMCO High School and Newton Community Schools, then farmed with his father for many years.

He was married June 23, 1957, in Kellogg to Joy M. Westercamp. He was a baptized confirmed member of Bethesda Lutheran Church in Ames in 1956 and was a long-time member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Kellogg. He currently was a member of the Kellogg United Methodist Church, Amboy Grange, Farmers Coop Elevator of Kellogg and was a Master Gardener.

He is survived by his wife Joy, rural Kellogg; four sons, C. Scott Anderson, McCann Village, Newton; Michael L. Anderson of the United States Navy, San Diego, Calif.; Mark J. Anderson, Logan, Utah, and Paul D. Anderson at home; one daughter Shelly Sue Rahkola, Redmond, Wash.; one grandson; his mother Ruby J. Anderson, rural Kellogg; one brother, Gordon Anderson, West Des Moines, and two sisters, Karna J. Carpenter, Littleton, Colo., and Kathryn Anderson-Helfgott, Bellingham, Wash. He was preceded in death by his father.