

Edna Anderson services are set

(ELMER E.)

Edna M. Anderson, 79, of the Mayflower Home died Saturday morning at Grinnell General Hospital.

Funeral services will be held at 7:30 p.m. today at the Smith Funeral Home east side facility, with the Rev. James P. Russell, pastor of the Grinnell United Methodist Church, officiating. Organist will be Charles Hoogland. Additional services will be held at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday at the United Methodist Church at Newman Grove, Neb., with the Rev. Samuel Rathod, pastor of the church, officiating. Burial will be at the Hope Cemetery in Platte County, Neb.

The daughter of Arthur and Jennie Hare, she was born Dec. 12, 1898, at Albion, Neb. She was a graduate of Albion High School and later attended Nebraska Wesleyan College at Lincoln. Following her education, she taught school in Nebraska.

On Sept. 29, 1923, she was married to Elmer E. Anderson. Following their marriage, the couple farmed near Newman Grove, Wayne, and Hartington, Neb., before moving to Sioux City in 1945. Mrs. Anderson was employed by the T.S. Martin Clothing Store in Sioux City.

She was a member of the Grinnell United Methodist Church and held local and state offices in the W.S.C.S. of the church. She was also past matron of the Eastern Star and past high priestess of the White Shrine.

She is survived by her son, Robert E. Anderson of Grinnell; two grandchildren; one great-grandson; and a brother, Irving Hare of Albion, Neb. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; a son, Duane I. Anderson; four brothers, Warren, Arthur, Walter and Sam Hare; and a sister, Mabel Hare.
