

Mr. Anderson rites Thursday

Lawrence W. "Skinny" Anderson, 84, of rural Kellogg died Monday, Dec. 7, at Skiff Medical Center in Newton.

Funeral services were conducted at 10 a.m. Thursday at the Kellogg Christian Church, with burial in Our Silent City Cemetery in Kellogg.

A lifetime resident of Jasper County, Mr. Anderson was a farmer. He was a member of the Kellogg Christian Church, a 67-year member and past master of the Amboy Grange, a member of the Newton Municipal Band, Murphy Band, Soil Conservation Board and Kellogg Elevator Board. He was a past director of Janeway School and served as a Kellogg Township trustee. He was also a county committeeman for the Farm Bureau.

Mr. Anderson is survived by his wife, Ruby; two sons, Carroll of Kellogg and Gordon of West Des Moines; two daughters, Karna Carpenter of Littleton, Colo., and Kathryn Anderson of Bellingham, Wash.; one sister, Dehlia Anderson of Newton; 12 grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

Memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society, the Kellogg Christian Church, or Hospice of Jasper County.