

Charles J. Andes

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon, Nov. 29, at the Madison Church of Christ, rural Brooklyn, for Charles J. Andes, 81, of Brooklyn, who died Wednesday, Nov. 24, 1999, at Brookhaven Nursing Home in Brooklyn.

Dennis Smith, minister of the church, officiated. The organist was Jan Read and special selections were "How Great Thou Art" and "Old Rugged Cross." Flower attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Melvin McClenathan.

Honorary casket bearers were Freeman Hall, Arthur Keller, Miles Clayton, Robert Larson, Kenny Smith and John Robey. Casket bearers were Glen Berry, Larry Humphrey, Mike McClenathan, Jim Foels, Don Brannian and John Andes. Interment was in Calvary Cemetery, Brooklyn.

Charles John Andes was born March 8, 1918, to Isaac Jacob and Jennie May Williams Andes at a farm near Brooklyn. He was educated in Madison #8 school and the Brooklyn school, and graduated valedictorian of the class of 1935.

He worked the family farm after graduation and then taught grade school in Madison Township. In 1942 he entered the army and was stationed at Ft. Warren, Cheyenne, Wyo.

On Nov. 25, 1943, Charles was married to Leona DeLoof in Cheyenne and following World War II he became a manager at Tyrell Chevrolet for four years.

In 1949 Charles and Leona came back to native Brooklyn and began farming. One year later he started operating the family farm and continued farming there and at other locations until 1983 when he retired. In 1991 they moved into Brooklyn.

Charles was a member of the Madison Church of Christ and the Francis Gallagher American Legion Post #294 and the Farm Bureau. He was well known in Brooklyn for his service on the BGM School Board (six years), the Brookhaven Board of Directors (30 years), and the Festival of Flags activities.

He was preceded in death by three brothers, Wayne, Ernest and Harold, and one sister, Margaret.

He is survived by his wife, Leona; his son Gary and wife Marylou of Silverton, Ore.; three grandchildren, Craig, Rebecca and Renee, and one great-grandchild, Maya Jade, all from Oregon; and one sister, June Douglas of Brooklyn.

Nevenhoven Funeral Services was in charge of arrangements. A memorial fund has been established.

Charles J. Andes

Charles J. Andes, 81, of Brooklyn died Wednesday, Nov. 24, at the Brookhaven Nursing Home in Brooklyn.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at the Madison Church of Christ in rural Brooklyn, with Dennis Smith, minister, officiating. Organist was Jan Read.

Casket bearers were Glen Berry, Larry Humphrey, Mike McClenathan, Jim Foels, Don Brannian and John Andes. Honorary bearers were Freeman Hall, Arthur Keller, Miles Clayton, Robert Larson, Kenny Smith and John Robey.

Burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Brooklyn, with the Nevenhoven Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

He was born March 8, 1918, on a farm near Brooklyn to Isaac Jacob and Jennie May Williams Andes. He attended Madison No. 8 School, graduating as valedictorian in 1936. He worked on the family farm after graduation, then taught grade school in Madison Township.

In 1942, he entered the U.S. Army and was stationed at Ft. Warren in Cheyenne, Wyo.

He was married to Leona DeLoof Nov. 25, 1943, in Cheyenne. Following World War II, he became a manager at Tyrell Chevrolet for four years, then returned to Brooklyn and began farming. He continued farming until retiring in 1983. The couple moved to Brooklyn in 1991.

Mr. Andes was a member of the Madison Church of Christ, the Francis Gallagher American Legion post and the Farm Bureau. He served on the BGM School Board for six years, the Brookhaven Board of Directors for 30 years and on Brooklyn's Festival of Flags organization.

He is survived by his wife; one son, Gary of Silverton, Ore.; three grandchildren; one great-grandchild; and one sister, June Douglas of Brooklyn.

He was preceded in death by his parents; three brothers, Wayne, Ernest and Harold; and one sister, Margaret.

A memorial fund has been established.

BC December 1, 1999

H-R November 29, 1999