3 - 3-8 - 1911 D. E. Anthony at Rest.

(Taken from Moline Daily Dispatch.) Daniel Elmer Anthony was born near Warsaw, Hancock county, 111., Jan. 19. 1867, and removed, when a small boy to Tama, later to Poweshiek county. Iowa, where he lived till young man-hood. In 1888 he located at Akron, lowa, which was his home until 1905 when he removed to Moline, Ill. On March 6, 1889, at Toledo, Iowa, he was united in marriage by the Rev. C. P. Reynolds to Miss Minnie J. Knauber of Delaware, Ind. To this union were born two children, L. Elmer and Ha Leone, who with the widow remain to mourn his death which occurred at 10:40, Thursday, March 16, 1911. Mr. Anthony had been a sufferer for four years from arterio sclerosis, but being of a most energetic turn of mind he worked at his trade of patternmaker antil May 24, 1910, when, on account of his health, he took a four months eave of absence from these duties, but act improving materially, he never returned. Instead, he began erection of new tenant house at which he worked when able until Feb. 2 he was stricken with apoplexy while varnishing the oathroom floor of the house. He raised enough from this attack to walk some out of doors. On March 14, he vas seized with the fatal stroke, living intil Thursday morning, March 16, never having regained consciousness.

Mr. Anthony was a man of most exemplary habits, of great worth in any community in which he had lived. He united with the Methodist Episcopal clurch at the age of 15, and lived a consistent life until death. For many years he was chorister, also a trustee of the church at Akron, Iowa. Af erremoving to Moline he was elected the of the stewards of the church here. But on account of ill health resigned after a few months' service. Beside the immediate family, he leaves one brother, Lincoln E. Anthony, and one sister, Mrs. Mary M. Haynes, and their families. The brother and sister had been with him the greater part of his illness since Feb. 2. A very comforting service was held in the home at 1718 Twelfth Avenue at 2:30 Saturday, at which favorite passages of scripture and songs of the deceased were read and sung, Mr. McCowan of the First Methodist church officiating. At 5 a. m. Sunday morning the remains were taken to Sheridan, Iowa, and at 1 o'clock in the afternoon another service was held in the church which Mr. Anthony attended in boyhood and young manhood. The same readings and songs as at the first service were used, Mr. McBride, the pastor of the church, speaking most comfortingly to those bereaved. It was thought to be the largest funeral ever held at the church, many old friends of the deceased being present from Grinnell, Tama and the surrounding country. The remains were laid to rest in Sheridan cemetery, six nephews acting as pall-bearers. Many beautiful floral pieces bearers. from friends in Moline and elsewhere covered the casket.
