

M^s Mary Appeldoorn

Mary E. Mortenson Appeldoorn, 95, Kellogg, died of congestive heart failure Friday, June 2, at Skiff Medical Center, Newton.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at Wallace-Pence Funeral Home, Newton, with the Rev. Robert Hinshaw, pastor of Ashton Chapel, officiating and burial in Our Silent City Cemetery in Kellogg. Memorials to the cemetery are suggested.

The daughter of Nels and Nellie Ponder Mortenson, she was born June 4, 1893, in Kellogg. She was married Nov. 24, 1915, to Cornelius ("Case") Appeldoorn in Kellogg and was a homemaker.

Survivors are four daughters Nellie (Mrs. Ed) Hauersperger, Kellogg; Ethelyne (Mrs. Melvin) Verwers and LaVona (Mrs. Roy) Henning, both of Newton, and Maxine (Mrs. Bill) Etter, Chariton; three grandchildren and three great grandchildren.