

MR September 28, 1994

William L. "Bill" Arendt, 37

William L. "Bill" Arendt, 37, of Swan Point, Washington, North Carolina, died at his home Wednesday morning, September 21, 1994.

Funeral services were held at 10:30 a.m. Monday, Sept. 26, 1994 at Watts Funeral Home, Montezuma. Rev. Brian Carter, United Methodist Church, officiated the services. Miss Alice Underwood was organist. Mr. Darrell Brand was soloist with music selections of "What A Friend We Have In Jesus" and "Because He Lives." Casket bearers were Mark Bolen, Doug Smith, Don Rethman, David Arendt, Michael Arendt and Randy Simmons. Burial was in Jackson Township Cemetery, Montezuma.

Bill was born in Grinnell, Iowa, Aug. 25, 1957, the son of Richard L. and Leta Close Arendt. He graduated from Montezuma Community High School in 1976. He attended Orange City College and graduated from Scott Community College in Davenport, Ia., as a computer analyst. He worked for Kartridge Pack in Davenport and for the past five years has been a computer programmer for Weyerhaeuser Co. in Plymouth, North Carolina.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Melvin and Delores Arendt and Richard Close.

Bill is survived by his parents, Richard and Leta of Montezuma; two brothers: David L. Arendt of Muscatine, and Michael L. Arendt and his wife, Cindy, stationed in the U.S. Air Force in Izmir, Turkey; a nephew, Michael Arendt and a niece, Heather Arendt both of Montezuma; his grandmother, Katherine Close, Montezuma; and other relatives and many friends.

Memorials may be made to the Montezuma Community School.