

Armstrong rites today

Emelia Armstrong, 92, of the Mayflower Home, died early Tuesday at the Mayflower health care center. 2-2

Funeral services for Mrs. Armstrong will be held at 1:30 p.m. today at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Philip J. Ramstad, pastor of the United Church of Christ—Congregational, officiating. Organist will be Kathleen Heffner. Pallbearers will be Ellis Brown, Ray George, Rex Pippin, Wayne Reams, Clair Strand, and Harvey B. Smith.

Burial will be at Hazelwood Cemetery.

The daughter of Frederick and Rosina Tauber Weis, she was born Feb. 18, 1886, in Germany. She came to the U.S. with her parents in 1889, and they made their home near Grinnell. She attended school here.

On Nov. 19, 1913, she was married to Herbert Harry Armstrong in Grinnell. She was employed by the local telephone company.

There are no immediate survivors. Mrs. Armstrong was preceded in death by her husband; two sisters, Mrs. Clarence (Alvine) Smith and Rose Therese Weis; and one brother, Richard Weis.
