Jennie Bacon services held

Jennie M. Bacon, 93, of 1129 Spring St., Grinnell, died Wednesday, Oct. 6, at Grinnell General Hospital following a brief illness.

Funeral services were conducted at 1:30 p.m. Friday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Damon R. Reese, pastor of the Grinnell Calvary Baptist Church, officiating. Music was provided by Julia Pearce, organist, and Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Sharp, vocalists. Pallbearers were Myron Esler, Verl Garwood, Tom Lowry, Laverne Morrison, Larry Sears and Howard Thompson. Flower bearers were Pearl Adkins, Neola Douglas and Opal Hubbard. Burial was at Hazelwood Cemetery.

The daughter of Paul and Margaret May Barr Esler, she was born April 2, 1889, on a farm west of Newburg. She attended the Newburg and Grinnell schools.

On Jan. 1, 1909, she was married to Harry Hiram Bacon at her parents' farm south of Grinnell. The couple farmed for two years near Burt, then returned to farm near Kellogg and south of Grinnell. They retired from farming in 1958 and moved to Grinnell.

Mrs. Bacon was a member of the Calvary Baptist Church and a member of the Friendship Club.

She is survived by her children, Lucille McCulloch of Newburg, Harriet Phillips of Mason City and Paul F. Bacon of Ewart; six grandchildren; 11 great-grandchildren; two great-great-grandchildren; and two sisters, Agnes Whitaker and Mary McDowell, both of Grinnell.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband in 1964; one grandchild; one great-grandchild; two sisters in infancy; and three brothers, Ross, William and Paul Esler.
