

Former Resident Charles Baggs¹⁻¹¹⁻ Dies In Colorado¹⁹⁶²

Word has been received here that Charles B. Baggs, a former Grinnell resident, died Jan. 8th at his home in Colorado Springs, Colo.

He was born June 2, 1878, at Grinnell and was the son of George T. and Joanna Bailey Baggs. He attended the Grinnell schools and was graduated from Grinnell high school and later from Grinnell College with the class of 1902.

United in marriage with Cara E. Weld, a member of the Grinnell class of 1904, the two celebrated their 56th wedding anniversary in June, 1961.

Mr. Baggs traveled for Hibbard, Spencer Hardware Co. of Chicago until his retirement.

Survivors include his widow, Cara E.; a daughter, Mrs. Dan F. Santry; and three grandchildren and one great grandson. Also surviving are his brother and sister, Russell and Clara Baggs, both of Grinnell.

He was preceded in death by his parents and one son, George, who died in 1959.
