

Bahrenfuse services set

Raymond F. Bahrenfuse, 64, who farmed in the Westfield community, died Thursday, Jan. 3, at his home of an apparent heart attack while caring for livestock.

Although his remains were not discovered until Saturday, Jasper County Medical Examiner Fred Carpenter, D.O., ruled that death occurred shortly after noon on Thursday.

Funeral services will be conducted at 3 p.m. Tuesday at the Smith Funeral Home, with Raymond Standerwick, pastor of the Westfield Community Church, officiating. Organist will be Kathleen Heffner. Burial will be in the Westfield

Cemetery.

The son of Frank H. and Anna Prosser Bahrenfuse, he was born in Grinnell on May 9, 1920. He was raised in the Montezuma, Gilman and Grinnell areas.

During World War II, he served with the U.S. Army. Following his discharge, he was married to Kathleen Beatrice Johnson on May 11, 1946, at Deep River.

Survivors include his brother, Clair E. Bahrenfuse of Rte. 2, Keillogg, and one sister, Edith Lucille Lee of Riverton, Wyo. He was preceded in death by his wife on Jan. 4, 1984; his parents; and two brothers, Ralph and Harold, in infancy.
