

Northern Breezes.

Died, Saturday, Feb. 13, 1899, at 6 p. m., Lucelia, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Baltisberger, aged 3 years, 4 months and 13 days.

The funeral services were held in the Lutheran church Monday at 2:30 p. m., conducted by Rev. J. F. Reinsch.

Lucelia was taken sick about two weeks ago with pneumonia. All was done that physicians and loving hands could do, but still she grew worse until the little spirit took its flight. May God, who heals all wounds comfort the stricken parents, brother and sister, for Jesus said: "Suffer the little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven." The funeral was largely attended by relatives and friends.

Our little friend has left us
And has joined the angel's band.
We shall hear her sweet voice ringing,
When we reach that spirit land.

Miss Dora Merkle of Des Moines who has been spending the winter at the home of Rev. John F. Reinsch, returned to her home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Grubne and Mr. Lidtra's attended the funeral of the little child of Gus Grubne in Malcom Monday forenoon.

Miss Josie Puls is assisting Mrs. F. C. Schultz with her sewing this week.

The many friends of Miss Ida Schultz will be glad to hear she is able to sit up at this writing and gradually improving. Nell were out to the funeral Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Meesz, of Lone Tree were present at the Baltisberger funeral.

Miss Mattie Hays of No. 8, Sheridan was called home to attend the funeral of her grandfather Sunday.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Lentz in Sheridan, about 60 friends and relatives assembled to witness the marriage of their daughter Freda, to Mr. Louis T. Maack, Wednesday Feb. 16, 1899.

At 11:30 Miss Josie Pulse began the wedding march when the bridal party descended the stairs and entered the parlor, where in a few well chosen words Rev. J. F. Reinsch impressively pronounced them husband and wife. Congratulations immediately followed after which all adjourned to the dining room where everything in season was provided and all did ample justice to the same. The bride was dressed in light blue Henrietta, trimmed with ribbon to match and white chiffon and lace, while the groom wore customary black. These young people are widely and favorably known, and many are the wishes for a long and happy life. Many useful and costly presents were left by their friends as tokens of best wishes and respect. Mr. and Mrs. Maack will be at home on the Kaisand farm in West Sheridan after March first.

Mrs. John H.